Personnel Party.

The merriest party was held last evening in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A., complimentary to the girls of the Albuquerque Business college, who responded with eager zest to the entertainment provided by the efficient social committee, including Miss Anna Ferguson, Cecilia Brown, Mildred Fox, Sage and Miss Stowell. Peanut games, souvenirs and creative schemes were everywhere in evidence. Toy badges of decorated peanuts were pinned on each guest. The initial game was a rolling peanut race followed by a progressive game of peanut shelling. Seated at three tables the young ladies were armed with an aim and became hilariously gay in efforts to stab the simple peanut. The most successful were summoned to the next tables. Another game was the making of peanut dolls with the aid of toothpicks. These creations were ingenious and original, the result being the exhibition of Chinese dolls, infants, witches, etc., etc., for which Miss Robertson was awarded a prize for meritorious work. This was a master peanut tied with a ribbon. The tables were spread in the parlors and the young ladies enjoyed a mirthsome repast, carrying in many dainty favors of diminutive boxes filled with candy peanuts.
